

2009 First Place Winner Joshua Frausto of Eagle Rock High School, "We The People"

All High School students who reside in the 31st Congressional District are eligible to compete in the annual High School Art Competition. The winner of the contest receives:

- An all expense paid trip to Washington D.C.
- His or her artwork hangs in the U.S. Capitol for one year.
- Showcased at Dodger Stadium pre-game
- More great prizes for 2nd, 3rd and honorable mention

Important Information

2010 Theme: "Looks To The Future"

Deadline for Entries: April 9, 2010

- Art work must arrive at Congressman Becerra's District Office by 5 p.m. on the due date.
- All artwork must have a signed student release form securely attached.
- Each entry must be original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws. Any entry which has been reproduced from an existing photo, painting, or any work produced by another person is a violation of the competition rules and will not be accepted!

Recent First-Place Winners

2008

2008 First Place Winner Christopher Paguio of Eagle Rock High School, Faces of Los Angeles

2007

~~2007~~ First place winner Julie Li of Franklin High School, My Sister

~~2006~~ winner Salma Vir Banks of Ribet Academy, Untitled

~~2005~~ First place winner Maria Soto of East Los Angeles Skills Center, Cultures

2004 First place winner Julio H. of Optimist High School, People's Wish.